Go Ahead... Touch It.

FREEDOM | OPPORTUNITY | POSSIBILITY | OPENING DOORS

Studio collection

These designer levers are more than touchable. This sleek new Studio Collection Series from SARGENT features inserts of complementary rich materials such as handstitched leather, burnished wood and brushed stainless. Commercial-grade, these levers are available for access control and electromechanical hardware, exit devices, mortise and tubular locks, and master key systems. They offer a continuum of design to satisfy the most discriminating architects and designers.

So go ahead, touch it. You'll never want to let go.
