FIND WORK

McGraw-Hill Construction Network® Built on the Dodge Project Database

Uncover New Project Opportunities with Access to the Most Comprehensive, Accurate and Timely Construction Database in North America

For over 115 years, the McGraw-Hill Construction Network, built on the Dodge project database, has reported in-depth news, locally and nationally, to construction professionals looking to build their businesses and increase project backlog.

Project News

Local project reporters track projects from the pre-planning and planning stages, to bidding, bid award and start. Key contact information is included for owners, architects, engineers, project managers, general contractors, and specialty trades. Dodge digitizes more than 60,000 plans, specifications and any issued addenda every year. This allows you to cost-effectively manage project opportunities, prepare take-offs and reference hard copies – in your office, or on the job site.

Project News Delivered in Print Format

Get daily delivery with Dodge Reports, detailed news from the final planning stage with Dodge Weeklies, or geographically targeted daily newspapers in major metropolitan areas. Easily portable. Review the news in your office, on the road, or on the job site.
