

INTRODUCING TOTAL CONTROL WITH THE NEW

DODGE DocuPro™

What if everyone on your sales team could see project information and data exactly as you do?
What if you could keep track of who saw which document... and when?

You'd be in Total Control—with all documents captured, aggregated, organized, and stored in a single, secure hub accessible any time and anywhere. With everyone on the same page, you'd be able to get in front of more projects, increase your win ratio, and solidify your long-term business.

EXPERIENCE THE TOTAL CONFIDENCE OF TOTAL CONTROL

Maximize the Value of Your Dodge Service

Organize Dodge documents and project information in a central, secure repository for easy access by your distributors or independent reps

Ensure Efficient Document Distribution

Cloud hosting ensures a state-of-the-art, scalable environment that all team members can easily access and collaborate on

Stay on Top of Your Business and Achieve Transparency

Track how documents are viewed, printed, downloaded, and date-stamped by your sales channel

Secure Your Business

Ensure that your team can get accurate cost information into the hands of the contractors bidding on a project; and ensure that your sales reps can target architects in the specification process

Target and Build Relationships

Instantly connect with a robust directory of industry players, sourced from the Dodge Network and appended with your own contacts
